

Legal & Terms

Small Print Page We like doing business with people in a straight forward, honest and reasonable way but our lawyers needed to fund their ski trips so they came up with a number of documents which determine the legal basis on which you do business with us, use our web site and services. If you believe we have not been reasonable or got something wrong we would like to hear from you and will always deal with complaints or criticism in a professional way. In fact, if you don't let us know then we cant make it better for you and others so please do tell! You are welcome to call or email us to discuss any concerns.
